Proposed Use

Explain what you want to do with the property. (Do you want to build a building, subdivide a lot, have a business, ...).

Explain why you need the Zoning Board to let you do it. (The building will be too close to the lot line; the Planning Board wouldn't approve your subdivision; your lot is in a zoning district where businesses aren't allowed; ...).

Be specific. Identify the section or sections of the Zoning Ordinance that apply. If lot sizes or configurations or building placements are relevant, provide a scale drawing or plan showing all relevant information, such as lot lines, setbacks, present and proposed structures on your lot and neighboring lots, etc.

Description of proposed use and need for ZBA approval (use this page; attach additional pages as necessary):

To change the usage of the apartment at Four-corners Farm from a Residence to a Cafe. In the existing duplex downstairs apartment.

I appeared at the planning board meeting with this issue Oct 21st 2009. they suggested I go to the zoning board.

Application for a Variance, Page 1 of 2

When, because of the specific characteristics of your property, the Zoning Ordinance unreasonably restricts your use of your property without a corresponding public benefit, the Zoning Board may grant a Variance, which modifies or sets aside particular requirements of the Ordinance.

The specific section of the Zoning Ordinance to be varied: 6.1 Permitted uses

The requirement in that section that you want to change, and how you want it changed:

under Permitted use. I need to extend the agricultural uses to include a cafe food service. RSA 2134-A outlines Agrotor.3m.

To grant a variance, the Zoning Board must decide that it will satisfy each of the following five conditions. Please explain why you believe that each of the following statements is true. (Use additional sheets of paper if necessary.)

1. Granting the variance would not be contrary to the public interest: insignificant increase in traffic, exterior of building the same, no impact on neighbors.

2. Granting the variance would be consistent with the spirit of the Ordinance: extending the options for agricultural use

3. Granting the variance would do substantial justice: viability of farm economically

4. The proposed use will not diminish surrounding property values: history of farm goes back in time, this new use will not change anything to the worse.

5. Literal enforcement of the provision of the ordinance would result in unnecessary hardship. Complete just one of sections 5(a), 5(b), or 5(c):

5(a) i. No fair and substantial relationship exists between the general public purposes of the ordinance provision and the specific application of that provision to the property:

This use is not contrary to the existing use and is consistent with Agribusiness in NH

ii. The proposed use is a reasonable one:

History of FARM is not impacted or changed. traffic IS similar with new use

iii. The hardship is a consequence of special conditions of the property that distinguish it from other properties in the area:

The Agricultural use of the Property can give farm a financial benefit by its extension. VALUE ADDED STEPS to keep INCOME on FARM and Community

5(b) i. The property cannot be reasonably used in strict conformance with the ordinance:

5(c) Hardship resulting from a physical disability.

i. The variance is necessary to make reasonable accommodations to allow a person with a recognized physical disability to reside in or regularly use the premises:

ii. The variance is in harmony with the general purpose and intent of the zoning ordinance:

Sheet # 1

The nature and spirit of the extension from growing and retailing food to serving that same food prepared, seems to be in accordance with the nature and spirit of the towns preamble to it's zoning ordinances. We promote health by providing fresh and safe food conveniently and do not add Ag chemicals to the environment. We bring food closer to people and people closer to the land. I think it serves the town well.

Preamble quote

“The purpose of this ordinance is to promote and protect the health, safety, prosperity, convenience or general welfare of the inhabitants, as well as efficiency and economy in the process of development of the incorporated Town of Wilton, by the promotion of good civic design and arrangements including protection of farmlands and open space; by wise and efficient expenditures of public funds; by the adequate provision of public utilities and other public requirements; and by other means.”
