Proposed Use

Explain what you want to do with the property. (Do you want to build a building, subdivide a lot, have a business, ...).

Explain why you need the Zoning Board to let you do it. (The building will be too close to the lot line; the Planning Board wouldn't approve your subdivision; your lot is in a zoning district where businesses aren't allowed; ...).

Be specific. Identify the section or sections of the Zoning Ordinance that apply. If lot sizes or configurations or building placements are relevant, provide a scale drawing or plan showing all relevant information, such as lot lines, setbacks, present and proposed structures on your lot and neighboring lots, etc.

Description of proposed use and need for ZBA approval (use this page; attach additional pages as necessary):

Remove old 14'x66' Mobil home and replace with a 28'x60' manufactured home on a new foundation. The building will be to close to the lot line. Cannot be moved because of garage already existing. This is a 1/2 acre lot.

Application for a Variance, Page 1 of 2

When, because of the specific characteristics of your property, the Zoning Ordinance unreasonably restricts your use of your property without a corresponding public benefit, the Zoning Board may grant a Variance, which modifies or sets aside particular requirements of the Ordinance.

The specific section of the Zoning Ordinance to be varied: 17.3 a Special Exceptions

The requirement in that section that you want to change, and how you want it changed:

Reduce the allowable setback to 10' on 1 end, towards lot 6.

To grant a variance, the Zoning Board must decide that it will satisfy each of the following five conditions. Please explain why you believe that each of the following statements is true. (Use additional sheets of paper if necessary.)

1. Granting the variance would not be contrary to the public interest: It is where the existing residence is now

2. Granting the variance would be consistent with the spirit of the Ordinance: _____

3. Granting the variance would do substantial justice: Newer home that is much more energy efficient

4. The proposed use will not diminish surrounding property values: No, it will enhance

Application for a Variance, Page 2 of 2

5. Literal enforcement of the provision of the ordinance would result in unnecessary hardship. Complete just one of sections 5(a), 5(b), or 5(c):

5(a) i. No fair and substantial relationship exists between the general public purposes of the ordinance provision and the specific application of that provision to the property:

ii. The proposed use is a reasonable one:

iii. The hardship is a consequence of special conditions of the property that distinguish it from other properties in the area:

5(b) i. The property cannot be reasonably used in strict conformance with the ordinance:

ii. The hardship is a consequence of special conditions of the property that distinguish it from other properties in the area:

The septic system is in the front yard

5(c) Hardship resulting from a physical disability.

i. The variance is necessary to make reasonable accommodations to allow a person with a recognized physical disability to reside in or regularly use the premises:

ii. The variance is in harmony with the general purpose and intent of the zoning ordinance:
