Proposed Use

Explain what you want to do with the property. (Do you want to build a building, subdivide a lot, have a business, ...).

Explain why you need the Zoning Board to let you do it. (The building will be too close to the lot line; the Planning Board wouldn't approve your subdivision; your lot is in a zoning district where businesses aren't allowed; ...).

Be specific. Identify the section or sections of the Zoning Ordinance that apply. If lot sizes or configurations or building placements are relevant, provide a scale drawing or plan showing all relevant information, such as lot lines, setbacks, present and proposed structures on your lot and neighboring lots, etc.

Description of proposed use and need for ZBA approval (use this page; attach additional pages as necessary):

Open up a state inspection station

Application for a Special Exception

A Special Exception is a use which is permitted by the Zoning Ordinance, but requires approval from the Zoning Board. Most special exceptions have a list of requirements; the Zoning Board can only approve the special exception if it finds that all the requirements are satisfied.

Note that in addition to the specific requirements that may be listed for a particular special exception, all special exceptions are subject to the general requirements in Section 4.4 of the Zoning Ordinance.

What section of the Zoning Ordinance defines the Special Exception that you are applying for? 5.3.1

Explain why your proposed use satisfies the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance: _____

OPEN up A inspection station

- A Yes it will.
- B TRUE
- C no Employees
- D making no changes to the Building
- E will be under deck in the back
- F
- G one car at a Time very little TRAFFIC
- H Follow all the Rolls
- I I understand and will comply
